It tells of a passionate love triangle that leads inexorably to conflict, violence and death. Setio and his wife Siti run a pottery business in a small village where Ludiro, a powerful and ruthless butcher, controls all the trading activities. “WITH A MELANCHOLY MOOD HEIGHTENED BY ITS POETIC WIDESCREEN COMPOSITIONS, THE KITE IS RICH IN SUBTLY RENDERED COMEDY AND TRAGEDY.”-MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

In director Randa Chahal Sabbag’s fairytale for troubled times, sixteen-year old Lamia must cross a border checkpoint between Lebanon and Israel to marry a man she has never met. Neither she nor her betrothed are eager to consummate a marriage to a stranger – a matter further complicated by Lamia’s surprising admission that she is in love with the Israeli soldier guarding the border. Sabbag’s enchanting drama about marriage and tradition is underscored by delicate symbolism and artful references to politics of Lebanon’s territories that have been annexed.
