

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE ACADEMY AWARD NOMINATED FILM
BERKELEY IN THE SIXTIES

"TRULY RIVETING.

A sweeping history of the environmental movement, 'A Fierce Green Fire' is both a cautionary tale and a triumphant one."

- THE WASHINGTON POST

"POWERFUL & STIRRING!

A worthy reminder of how much has been done to help heal our planet's ecological woes as well as how much remains to be achieved."

- LOS ANGELES TIMES

"Melding history, science, and up-to-the-minute urgency, 'A Fierce Green Fire' is a clarion call that's PASSIONATE AND PROVOCATIVE."

- BOSTON GLOBE

"You won't be able to go back to business-as-usual after seeing this HELL-RAISING DOCUMENTARY."

- ALTERNET

"ROUSING, INSPIRING! The most ambitious environmental documentary since 'An Inconvenient Truth' tries to make the case that we just might win. Noggin-shaking historical truths...jabs you in the heart."

- OUTSIDE MAGAZINE'S "BEST OF SUNDANCE"

Spanning 50 years of grassroots and global activism, this Sundance documentary brings to light the vital stories of the environmental movement where people fought – and succeeded – against enormous odds. From halting dams in the Grand Canyon to fighting toxic waste at Love Canal; from Greenpeace to Chico Mendes; from climate change to the promise of transforming our civilization, A Fierce Green Fire is "nothing less than the history of environmentalism itself." (Los Angeles Times).
