

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“THE STUNNING, INFURIATING TALE OF MICHAEL MORTON. Director Al Reinert tells the tale beautifully, via sparse interviews with Morton, his lawyers, his fellow inmates and, most movingly, jurors who imposed the wrongful verdict and the young son whose childhood Mr. Morton missed. The film isn’t didactic; it lets you build to outrage on your own.”

-THE NEW YORK TIMES

“Makes very real an innocent man’s nightmare through a cruel and broken justice system that stole his freedom, his relationship with his son and, nearly, his spirit.”

-HOUSTON CHRONICLE

“AN EXTRAORDINARY FILM... ultimately a story of transcendence.”

-AUSTIN AMERICAN STATESMAN

In 1986 Michael Morton’s wife Christine is brutally murdered in front of their only child, and Michael is convicted of the crime. Locked away in Texas prisons for a quarter century, estranged from his son, he has years to ponder questions of justice and innocence, truth and fate. Though he is virtually invisible to society, the Innocence Project and Michael’s pro bono attorney spend years fighting for the right to test DNA evidence found at the murder scene. Their discoveries ultimately reveal that the price of a wrongful conviction goes well beyond one man’s loss of freedom.

“The film’s rivetingly straightforward style of storytelling is a perfect match for its subject. An inspiring tale of spiritual uplift, sympathetically detailing how religious faith gave Morton the strength to endure, and the mercy to forgive.”
