

TWO CLASSICS OF POSTWAR GERMANY FINALLY ON DVD

“BRILLIANT, POWERFUL, FIRST RATE!” - Variety

“ONE OF GERMAN CINEMA’S MOST SIGNIFICANT
ATTEMPTS TO COME TO TERMS WITH THE PAST.”

- Filmkritik (Germany)

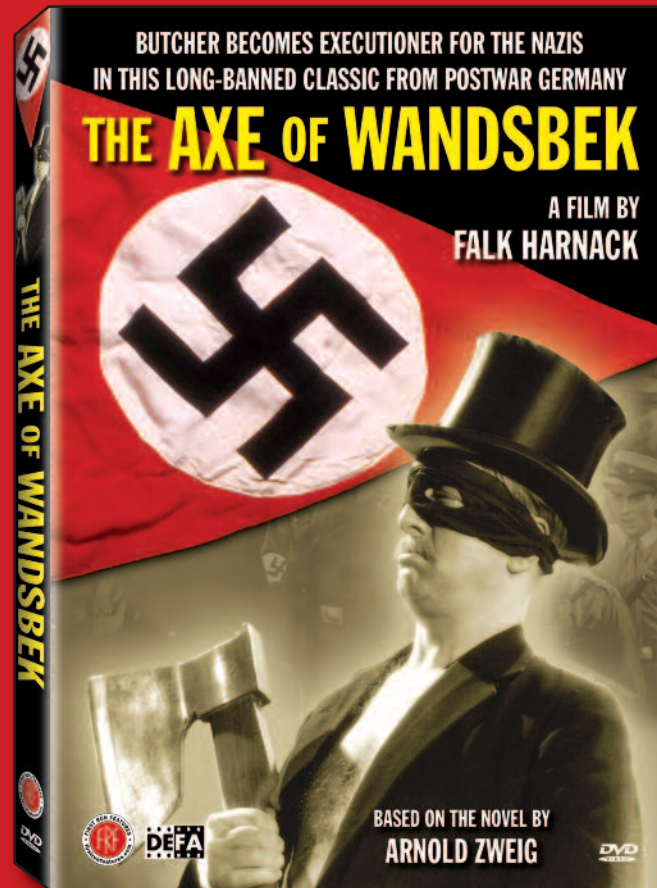

Two 17 year-olds, Werner and his best friend Gilbert, are pulled out of school and into Hitler's army. While Gilbert becomes a fanatical soldier, Werner begins to understand the senselessness of war. A political and artistic masterpiece, the film was voted one of the 100 most important German films of all time.

“A REDISCOVERED TREASURE!”

- Anne Nelson, author of Red Orchestra

Germany 1934: the Nazis need a hangman to put a group of political prisoners to death. Teetjen, the town butcher, makes the biggest mistake of his life: facing bankruptcy, he agrees to do the dirty deed. Adapted from the novel by German-Jewish author Arnold Zweig, this important classic was directed by a former anti-Nazi resistance fighter.
