9 GIRLS 4 WEEKS 1 DREAM

"TUTU MUCH is full of excitement and disappointment, tears and laughter and hard decisions regarding years of sacrifice and pain. And it's all from the mouths of children."

- Ballet News

"It's astonishing to see the determination that a 10-year-old girl has when it comes to a possible profession in ballet. Inspiring!"

-Edmonton Vue

Through the eyes of 9 young girls from around the world, TUTU MUCH is the behind-the-scenes story of what it takes to become a dancer. These girls have been given the chance of a lifetime, a four week long summer audition to get into a professional ballet school. Which girl will prove to be the dancer they are looking for? Who will have the passion, the drive and the endurance to make it? And will she and her family be ready to make the sacrifices? TUTU MUCH gives us all a rare look at 9 remarkable girls and a summer that no one will ever forget.

-WILLAMETTE WEEKLY

2013 THEATRICAL RELEASE!

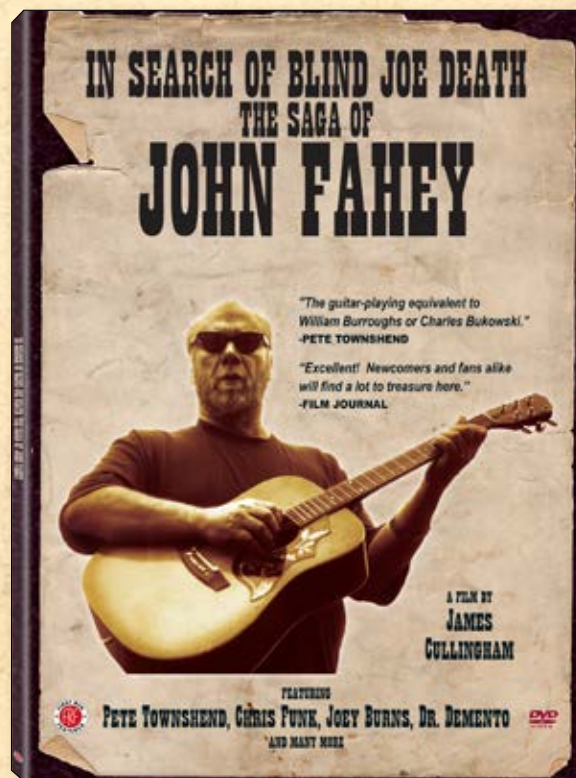

Known as the father of American Primitive Guitar, many consider John Fahey to be a foundational figure in American folk music. As both musician and musicologist, Fahey made a fundamental contribution to our understanding and appreciation of such music genres as Delta blues, Appalachian bluegrass and New Orleans jazz.

In Search of Blind Joe Death combines interviews, performances and archival footage with animation in a musically charged tribute to a tremendously influential composer, guitarist and provocateur. Interviewees include The Who's Pete Townshend, Chris Funk of The Decemberists and renowned radio personality Dr. Demento.

OVER AN HOUR OF BONUS MATERIALS!

- Includes the full Pete Townshend interview • Rare Performance Footage • and more!
