

FIRST RUN FEATURES presents

“A worthy tribute bound to illuminate and inspire.”

-Variety

“The long, rich and, more recently, tragic history of the marathon is traced with involving detail and heart in Jon Dunham’s inspiring documentary.”

-Los Angeles Times

“Emotional and thrilling, without gloss or cliché.”

-Village Voice

“I laughed. I cried. I was so proud.”

-Shalane Flanagan, Olympic Silver Medalist

• Executive Produced by Academy Award® nominee and Boston Marathon competitor Frank Marshall (Back to the Future, The Curious Case of Benjamin Button, Sully)

• Original Soundtrack by five-time Emmy® winner Jeff Beal (House of Cards, Blackfish) and recorded by members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra

From its humble origins 120 years ago to present day, Boston: The Documentary immerses the viewer into the wondrous kaleidoscope of the oldest annually contested marathon in the world.

Evolving from a workingman’s challenge to welcoming foreign athletes and eventually women, the iconic race paved the way for the modern marathon and mass participatory sports.

Narrated by Academy Award® winner and Beantown native Matt Damon, Boston features many of running’s greatest champions including Shalane Flanagan, Meb Keflezighi, Bill Rodgers, Frank Shorter and Joan Benoit Samuelson.
