

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

"A SCREWBALL ROAD MOVIE INSPIRED BY THE WILDEST STYLINGS OF LEONE, FELLINI AND TARANTINO!"

-Todd McCarthy, VARIETY

"Terrifically offbeat and charming! intriguing characters and strong lead performances. Double crosses, playful absurdity, and even a little romance."

-THIS WEEK IN NEW YORK

"PULP FICTION meets it HAPPENED ONE NIGHT. Rueful humor and tropical sensuality!"

-THE NEW YORK TIMES

"The charismatic leads display an undeniable chemistry."

-THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

"Road movie, character study, thriller, travelogue, chase film, comedy, religious satire, globalization tract, family dramedy...this lively movie is so full of vivacious characters and non-stop events that the few times it pauses to rest a bit, you'll be happy to catch your breath."

-James van Maanen, TRUST MOVIES

2010 THEATRICAL ART HOUSE RELEASE!

Carmo would do anything to escape the hellhole of a Brazilian border town where she lives. So when a lonesome, wheelchair-bound low-life named Marco arrives on the scene, she jumps at the chance to help him transport a shipment of smuggled goods. An unlikely romance unfolds as the two are chased through a lush and jagged South American landscape by banditos, the police and their own passions alike. A lawless, reckless journey of self-discovery, this Sundance dazzler refuels the classic road-trip genre.
