

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“NOT FOR THE FAINT OF HEART.”
-VOGUE

“DESTINED TO CAUSE A STIR.
Not just the band, but the parents, the kids, and maybe even the judicial system are all on trial before the camera. Even-handed, sympathetic, but ultimately heartbreaking.”
-THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

“A MONUMENTAL SHOWDOWN
between irreconcilable generations. A nightmare glimpse into America’s spiritual drought and the way people fill that void with diametrically opposed faiths.”
-INTERVIEW MAGAZINE

Two young men shoot themselves in a churchyard. Ray Belknap dies; James Vance, severely disfigured, survives. Their parents take heavy-metal icons Judas Priest to court, claiming the band “mesmerized” their sons. The unprecedented trial is the framework for this one-of-a-kind, Emmy-nominated documentary.
