

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“David Sington’s engrossing documentary is the staggering true story of a convicted murderer who demanded his own execution after 20 years on death row. The film tells a factual story with the dramatic beats of a fiction film, using an unorthodox yet gripping narrative style.” - VARIETY

“Utterly spellbinding. Filled with unexpected twists, jaw-dropping developments and the heartwarming, hard-earned sense of a person able to transcend even the most humbling of circumstances.”

- SCREEN DAILY

“Guaranteed to reel in those obsessed with Serial and HBO’s The Jinx.”

- EMPIRE

“Riveting and stylistically daring.”

- THE HUFFINGTON POST

“An intriguing mystery that will keep you gripped until the final moments.”

- TIME OUT

Part confessional and part performance, this haunting psychological thriller is a stylistically daring experiment in storytelling. Nick, a death row inmate, petitions the court to be executed. As he goes on to tell his story, it gradually becomes clear that nothing is quite what it seems. Nick spins his tale with all the twists and turns of classic crime drama, with a final shocking twist that casts everything in a new light.
