Their relationship on the rocks, a young Brooklyn couple heads to a remote bed & breakfast to work things out. But from the moment they arrive at The Happy House it's one disaster after another, and they soon begin to suspect they've wandered into a real life horror movie. Events escalate from weird to terrifying as they contend with the house's batty owner, her imposing son, a moody Swedish lepidopterist, a pedantic English professor, an extraordinarily rare butterfly, the world's best blueberry muffins, a .44 Magnum, a demented serial killer, and one very strict rulebook.

"A HOOT!"

-Frank Scheck, THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

"PERVERSELY UNEXPECTED HUMOR! Director/Writer D.W. Young has created a puckishly diverting horror comedy with admirable poise and sneaky charm. A memorably weird cast make for some amazingly agreeable company."

-David Noh, FILM JOURNAL

2013 THEATRICAL RELEASE!

"YOUNG PULLS AN IMPRESSIVE HAT TRICK with a horror-comedy that's authentically misleading until a pivotal moment. It runs the tonal gamut from a Jarmuschian portrait of youthful stasis to a comedy of remarriage to a fish-out-of-water sitcom to a satire of contemporary America."

-Chuck Bowen, SLANT MAGAZINE

"LIKABLE! 30 Rock vet Marceline Hugot is indelible as the B&B's cheery proprietor."

-Michael Atkinson, THE VILLAGE VOICE

"ONE OF THE 10 SUMMER HORROR FILMS ON OUR RADAR! Why? Because these things are innately terrifying: B&Bs, cuckoo clocks, lepidopterists in khaki vests, and eating dinner with strangers."

-Tess Lynch, GRANTLAND

PRE-BOOK: DECEMBER 3 • STREET DATE: JANUARY 7
