

FIRST RUN FEATURES presents

"AN UNQUALIFIED, LIFE-ENHANCING JOY FROM START TO FINISH!"

The Sunday Times (London)

"As gently hypnotic and fulfilling as one of Hockney's own works."

Time Out London

"This film may well be the best anyone will ever make about Hockney's process."

The Times (London)

"We keep coming back to this wonderful film, not just to enjoy now but for its lasting importance for future generations who want to understand Hockney's art."

BBC Radio

"An affectionate portrait of David Hockney who has come back to the land of his birth to find new springs for his art"

The Financial Times

"A gentle, inspiring film... completely engrossing!"

Radio Times, Pick of the Day

Filed over three years, this documentary is an unprecedented record of a major artist at work. It captures David Hockney's return from California to paint his native Yorkshire, outside, through the seasons and in all weathers. It tells the story of a homecoming and gives a revealing portrait of what inspires and motivates today's greatest living British-born artist.
