

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

"CHARMING & UNEXPECTEDLY UPBEAT. WITH HER HUMOR, QUIET DETERMINATION AND LACK OF FEAR, LOUISE IS A DELIGHT - A ROBINSON CRUSOE IN PEARLS AND A PANAMA HAT."

-SCREEN DAILY

"Endearing and original. A tale that underlines one woman's sturdy and witty resilience in the face of adversity. Will draw comparisons to The Red Turtle."

-THE HOLLWOOD REPORTER

"Laguionie's delicate, gentle and mystical story will move viewers of all ages. It's a richly layered work, awash with poetry."

-CINEUROPA

"Absorbing, eccentric...indelible imagery."

-WILLAMETTE WEEKLY

Evoking Mr. Hulot's Holiday, The Twilight Zone, and Post-Impressionist watercolors, this lovely, imaginative film by Jean-François Laguionie is an "animation for adults" only in the sense of its mature and reflective sensibility.

On the last day of the summer season at a small seaside resort town, 75-year-old Louise misses the last train out. After a torrential downpour, she emerges from her room the next morning to find the streets flooded and the town utterly deserted. Days, weeks, months pass in this dreamlike interlude, as Louise, like a modern-day Crusoe, learns to fend for herself, her solitude interrupted only by a talking dog and by memories of the seaside episodes of her past.
