

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“A TRUE CROWD PLEASER!”

- POV MAGAZINE

“Touching and quietly jaw-dropping.”

- MARIN POST

“A charming little tale.”

- THIS WEEK IN NEW YORK

“Once a champion cyclist, Giuseppe Marinoni is now a master craftsman whose bicycles are prized by devotees. The film catches Marinoni as he trains to break the speed record for his age group, following him from studio to home to Italy.”

- THE NEW YORK TIMES

“A rich meditation on the power of the human spirit.”

- CRITERION CAST

“Incredibly entertaining and moving!”

- TORONTO FILM SCENE

“Highly enjoyable and informative! Marinoni is a rivetingly charismatic presence, as all these Yodas tend to be.”

- FILM JOURNAL INTERNATIONAL

Giuseppe Marinoni found his calling when he transitioned from champion cyclist to master bike craftsman. But after years hunched over toxic fumes, his passion almost killed him. Today, at age 75, Marinoni is back in top shape, and decided to attempt the world hour record for his age group, all on a bike he built with his own hands almost 40 years ago.
