“Gives new meaning to ‘better late than never.’ A valuable film that could encourage young gays to live their lives without fear and secrets.”

-JOY BEHAR, HOST OF THE JOY BEHAR SHOW, CO-HOST OF THE VIEW

“OUT LATE is a powerful documentary that reveals emotional, untold stories from a formerly silent generation. It’s a liberating experience watching this well-made film, for it teaches us that it’s never too late to seize the day and live your life to its fullest.”

-LAUREN LAZIN, EXECUTIVE PRODUCER, MTV NETWORKS

“I predict a straight audience will be attracted to this brilliant work, be instructed by it and recommend it to friends. The GLBT folk will want this film to live –well – forever!”

-PHIL DONAHUE

“Depicts both the rush involved in claiming one’s sexual identity and the fear that having waited so long might make real romance impossible.”

-BOSTON GLOBE

“Out Late” is an inspirational and moving documentary about five individuals who made the courageous and life-altering decision to come out as lesbian, gay, or transgender, after the age of 55.

Why did they wait until their 50’s, 60’s, or 70’s to come out? And what was the turning point that caused each of them to openly declare their sexuality? From Canada to Florida to Kansas, we explore what ultimately led these dynamic individuals to make the liberating choice to live openly and honestly amongst their family, friends and community, perhaps for the first time in their lives. Their stories are “nothing less than extraordinary.” (MARYLAND FILM FESTIVAL)
