

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“This succinct, documentary sticks smoothly to its beat. Thoughtfully edited, it also pays tribute to a faded era of alternative journalism and to a model for cultural bonds across racial lines.”

- THE NEW YORK TIMES

“An endlessly fascinating man... a great pleasure to watch, to listen to, and to read, even when you couldn't disagree with him more.”

- THE VILLAGE VOICE

“Sharp-looking and enjoyable!”

- THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

2014 THEATRICAL RELEASE!

“Rich in the sounds and occasional sights of legendary cultural figures, from Lenny Bruce and Malcolm X to Bob Dylan and Coleman Hawkins. It is the vivid testimony of the artists he championed and hung out with that galvanizes the film.”

- VARIETY

Nat Hentoff is one of the enduring voices of the last 65 years, a writer who championed jazz as an art form and who also led the rise of 'alternative' journalism in America. This unique documentary wraps the themes of liberty, identity and free expression around a historical narrative that stretches from the Great Depression to the Patriot Act.
