

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“A RICH AND REWARDING MOVIE.
ONE OF THE YEAR’S BEST DOCUMENTARIES...A GIFT.”

- DAVID FEAR, ROLLING STONE

The New York Times Critic's Pick

“INTIMATE, MOVING AND QUIETLY ELOQUENT.”

- A.O. SCOTT, THE NEW YORK TIMES

“There are biographical documentaries, fortunate to the point of being blessed, that start as fly-on-the-wall journalism and luck into better-than-fiction narrative twists. The remarkable Quest is one of them.”

- GARY THOMPSON, PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER

“Quest is the type of independent film about American life that should be common but is rare in actuality.”

- SCOTT TOBIAS, NATIONAL PUBLIC RADIO

“A beautiful film. Evokes the peerless Hoop Dreams... but there’s nothing academic about it.

To the contrary, Quest is intimate, warm yet unsentimental and agreeably rambling.”

- JOE MORGENSTERN, WALL STREET JOURNAL

Filed with vérité intimacy for nearly a decade, Quest is the moving portrait of the Rainey family living in North Philadelphia.

Beginning at the dawn of the Obama presidency, Christopher “Quest” Rainey and his wife Christine’a raise a family while nurturing a community of hip hop artists in their home music studio. It’s a safe space where all are welcome, but this creative sanctuary can’t always shield them from the strife that grips their neighborhood.

Epic in scope, the Sundance documentary Quest is a vivid illumination of race and class in America, and a testament to love, healing and hope.
