

WINNER OF MULTIPLE AWARDS INCLUDING THE GRAND JURY PRIZE & AUDIENCE AWARD AT SXSW!

“A RIVETING COURTROOM DRAMA set against the combustible backdrop of the decimated rain forest, with a dramatic courtroom turnabout that blows everything that’s come before out of the water.”

-Austin Chronicle

“RIVETING, VIVID STUFF... remarkable courtroom footage. So captivating it’s almost hard to believe.”

-The Hollywood Reporter

“IMPRESSES AND ENTHRALLS, balancing moral outrage and courtroom melodrama in a documentary filled with the sort of colorful characters one usually encounters only in fictional crime stories.”

-Variety

“BUILDS TO SOMETHING TRULY REMARKABLE: a team of lawyers engage in theatrics you wouldn’t believe in a Hollywood drama... a feast of real-time, real-life drama.”

-Austin American-Statesman

“OUTLANDISH AND GRIPPING TRIAL SCENES... incredible access...a stark illustration of corruption and the fight against it.”

-The Guardian (UK)

At the mouth of the Amazon River, a murder trial is taking place. The victim – Sister Dorothy Stang, a 73-year-old Catholic nun from Dayton, Ohio – was shot six times at point blank range. The events that led to her death, and the trials that follow, reveal the larger battle being fought for the future of the rainforest.

With unprecedented access to both sides of the conflict, this gripping documentary follows the real-life drama at the trials of Dorothy’s killers, while exploring the conflicts in the Amazon that led to that fateful day.

- As seen on HBO
- Narrated by MARTIN SHEEN
