THE FIGHT FOR GAY RIGHTS

“If you’re interested in using non-violent resistance as a way to maintain self-respect while simultaneously tackling prejudice, then SoleJourney is a trip worth taking.”

-Philadelphia International Gay & Lesbian Film Festival

SoleJourney shows how dedicated and courageous individuals, following in the footsteps of Gandhi and Martin Luther King, Jr., use non-violent resistance and acts of civil disobedience to confront anti-gay rhetoric as well as religious and political oppression.

This powerful, inspiring documentary exposes James Dobson’s Focus on the Family, a well-funded, politically powerful organization that assaults the civil rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people.

Interweaving stories of courage and commitment and interviews with movement leaders such as Mel White of Soulforce, Judy Shepard of the Matthew Shepard Foundation, and actor and activist Chad Allen, SoleJourney shows how a small group of individuals take action against a colossal adversary – including a six-day, 65 mile march from the Colorado State Capitol in Denver to the Focus on the Family’s headquarters in Colorado Springs.

Soul-force is Gandhi's principle of relentless nonviolent resistance ...

Soulforce is the movement to end religious and political discrimination against lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people ...

SoleJourney is the movie that follows ordinary families taking extraordinary measures to stand for justice in spite of the odds.
