

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“ISABELLE HUPPERT, ARGUABLY THE FINEST FRENCH SCREEN ACTRESS OF HER GENERATION, has yet another splendid role in the complex, compassionate and endlessly illuminating ‘Special Treatment’. IMPRESSIVE!”
-Los Angeles Times

“HUPPERT HAS SUCCEEDED ONCE AGAIN.”
-Roger Ebert

“SMART, WITTY, ENTERTAINING!”
-San Francisco Examiner

“HUPPERT IS ASTONISHING. Her abandon and willingness to try anything give the movie a bracing unpredictability.” -Time Out Chicago

“A MEMORABLE JOURNEY, with exquisitely drawn characters and a tremendous cast, that blends satire, melancholy and romance in unlikely but delicious fashion.” - Andrew O’Hehir, Salon

ISABELLE HUPPERT, FRANCE’S LEADING LADY

From Godard’s Every Man For Himself to a French Oscar for Ceremony and the Best Actress Award at Cannes for The Piano Teacher, Huppert has appeared in over 90 films.

THEATRICAL ARTHOUSE RELEASE

In this darkly erotic drama from cult filmmaker Jeanne Labruno, Isabelle Huppert stars as a high-class prostitute named Alice who serves up sexual fantasies for her clientele, from schoolgirl innocence to S&M. Fed up with the seamy underbelly of French masculinity, Alice crosses paths with Xavier, a neurotic psychoanalyst facing a marriage crisis. The two quickly realize their professions share a thing or two in common as they navigate the overlapping worlds of psychotherapy and sex therapy.
