

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“EXTRAORDINARY...A DEEP, RICH DIVE INTO THE HISTORY OF AFRICAN AMERICAN PHOTOGRAPHY.”

-TIME MAGAZINE

“ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT AND NECESSARY DOCUMENTARIES OF THE YEAR.” -INDIEWIRE

“POWERFUL...MARVELOUS... AMAZING ARCHIVAL FOOTAGE.” -THIS WEEK IN NY

“BREATHTAKING...” -LOS ANGELES TIMES

“ENTRANCING...” -ROGEREBERT.COM

“ENLIGHTENING...” -BROOKLYN MAGAZINE

“A RICH, MOVING DOCUMENTARY... AN EXPANSIVE, FAST-MOVING LOOK AT THE AFRICAN AMERICAN EXPERIENCE SINCE SLAVERY, CANVASSING EVERYTHING FROM THE MEDIA SAVVY OF FIGURES LIKE FREDERICK DOUGLASS AND SOJOURNER TRUTH TO THE WAYS THAT CONTEMPORARY BLACK IDENTITY HAS BEEN CORRODED BY CONSUMERISM.” -LA WEEKLY

NATIONAL THEATRICAL RELEASE
NATIONAL PUBLIC TELEVISION BROADCAST

The first documentary to explore the American family photo album through the eyes of black photographers, Through a Lens Darkly probes the recesses of American history to discover images that have been suppressed, forgotten and lost. From slavery to the present, these extraordinary images unveil a world confronting the difficult edges of citizenship and what it means to be human.

SRP: $27.95
 Catalog #: FRF 916387D
 92 minutes, color, 2014

7 20229 91638 7

Inspired by Deborah Willis's book Reflections in Black and featuring works by Carrie Mae Weems, Lorna Simpson, Anthony Barboza, Hank Willis Thomas and many others, Through a Lens Darkly introduces the viewer to a community of storytellers who collectively transform singular experiences into a journey of discovery – and a call to action.

DVD BONUS MATERIALS

- IMAGE GALLERIES
- ABOUT THE DIGITAL DIASPORA ROADSHOW
- ABOUT REFLECTIONS IN BLACK BY DEBORAH WILLIS
- BIOGRAPHIES • RESOURCES

PRE-BOOK: JANUARY 13 • STREET DATE: FEBRUARY 10

TO ORDER CALL 1-800-229-8575 OR CONTACT YOUR DISTRIBUTOR

Email: sales@firstrunfeatures.com

