

FIRST RUN FEATURES PRESENTS

“The Breast Archives is like a warm conversation between you and nine of your closest friends.”

-Lena Wilson, The Valley Advocate

“Every woman needs to see this documentary, so she can begin her own journey towards health.”

-Sydney Ross Singer, Medical Anthropologist

“A powerful, daring and important film for all women to witness and bond with because it empowers us to honor our own bodies.”

-Irene Żabytko, Author & Filmmaker

“Re-visiting their breast memories gives women a chance to shift their perspective, and to tap into a deeper compassion for themselves.”

-Xiu-Jing Shi, A Woman’s Thing

Real Women. Real Stories. The Journey Is Empowerment.

The Breast Archives uncovers nine women’s personal stories of empowerment. Baring their breasts and their hearts, the women share the unique journeys they’ve made with their bodies. From their formative years of hiding, shame, and disconnection, to adulthood and the discovery of what it means to be a powerful woman. As the women slowly reconnect with their body-based stories they find a reservoir of strength and wisdom that lies within their breasts.

“This film is a conversation starter.”

-Poorna Bell, The Huffington Post
