“An inspiring and transporting portrait, captivating and beautifully shot.”

- Los Angeles Times

“Opens a window onto a famous Catholic pilgrimage.”

-The New York Times

“Beautifully filmed. Profound and honest.”

-Vancouver Observer

“A soulful riff on the all-too-fleeting rhapsodies of travel. Beauty-dazed and rapt with a kind of giddy sadness.”

-Film Journal

“Europe’s most famous path. Take it, and this marvelous film, at your own pace.”

-The Globe and Mail

“Transcendent, enlightening, and even occasionally funny.”

-NOW Magazine Toronto

Europe’s most popular pilgrimage, the Camino de Santiago attracts wayfarers of all stripes to walk its ancient paths in search of meaning. One such pilgrim is Dane Johansen, an American cellist who walks the Camino with his instrument on his back, performing music for his fellow pilgrims along the way.

Accompanied by the vast landscapes of Northern Spain, the haunting music of J.S. Bach (performed by Johansen), and the very personal struggles and joys of the many pilgrims encountered along the way, Strangers on the Earth examines the physical, mental and spiritual aspects of the concept of ‘journey’ and the vital role it can play as part of the human experience.
